

Still hurts

Words and music Bärenz/ Strottbeck

Saw a face in the crowd That reminded me in someone I knew a long time ago
It almost took my breath away when I suddenly realized that the memory still hurts me so.

You stole my heart away from the moment that we first met I gave you everything I had I held your hand through the storm kept you warm when it was cold outside and made you laugh each time you were sad.

But then you turned around without a sound you walked out the door still I don't know the reason why You just left me behind with an empty, aching heart and these memory still hurts me so.

Bridge

And the wind still whispers your name while the clouds are painting your face Still feel your touch like a gentle breeze
All these memories still hurt me so.
